

Proactive Release: Titles of advice received by Hon Dr David Clark

6 November 2020 – 31 December 2020

The following document titles have been proactively released by the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet (DPMC), on behalf of Hon Dr David Clark, Minister for the Digital Economy and Communications:

- Briefing to Incoming Minister for the Digital Economy and Communications, 2 November 2020
- Global Partnership on Artificial Intelligence - voting instructions and Council meeting, 17 November 2020
- Budapest Convention on Cybercrime - Introduction and Next Steps, 19 November 2020
- 5G Security Introduction, 25 November 2020
- Global Partnership on Artificial Intelligence Council meeting – issues and intervention, 26 November 2020
- Accession to the Budapest Convention – advice on the requisite policy decisions, 26 November 2020
- GPAI Council Meeting – Annotated Agenda, 4 December 2020
- Accession to the Budapest Convention - revised Cabinet paper for lodging, 9 December 2020
- Cabinet Business Committee: Accession to the Budapest Convention: Talking Points, 14 December 2020

This list includes papers received from DPMC where the Minister is the main recipient. Papers received from other agencies, or where a paper has been referred to the Minister by another Minister, are not included in this list. The Minister also receives regular status reports from DPMC which are not included in this list.

Some additional titles received by the Minister would not be appropriate to release and, if requested, would be withheld under the Official Information Act 1982 (the Act). Where this is the case, titles have been withheld in accordance with section 6(a) of the Act, to protect the security or defence of New Zealand or the international relations of the Government of New Zealand.