

Schedule of Responsibilities
Delegated to Associate Ministers and Parliamentary Under-Secretaries

21 June 2022

This paper is presented to the House, in accordance with the suggestion of the Standing Orders Committee in its Report on the Review of Standing Orders [I. 18A, December 1995].

At page 76 of its report, the Standing Orders Committee recorded its support for oral questions to be asked directly of Associate Ministers who have been formally delegated defined responsibilities by Ministers having primary responsibility for particular portfolios.

The Standing Orders Committee proposed that the Leader of the House should table in the House a schedule of such delegations at least annually. The attached schedule has been prepared in the Cabinet Office for this purpose.

The schedule also includes responsibilities allocated to Parliamentary Under-Secretaries. Under Standing Orders, Parliamentary Under-Secretaries may only be asked oral questions in the House in the same way that any MP who is not a Minister can be questioned. However, they may answer questions on behalf of the principal Minister in the same way that Associate Ministers can answer.

The delegations are also included in the Cabinet Office section of the Department of the Prime Minister and Cabinet website (<http://www.dPMC.govt.nz/cabinet/ministers/delegated>), which will be updated from time to time to reflect any substantive amendments to any of the delegated responsibilities.

Hon Chris Hipkins Leader of the House

21 June 2022

Schedule of Responsibilities Delegated to Associate Ministers and Parliamentary Under-Secretaries as at 21 June 2022

Associate Ministers are appointed to provide portfolio Ministers with assistance in carrying out their portfolio responsibilities. The control of the portfolio always rests with the portfolio Minister. This schedule provides a summary list of the responsibilities that portfolio Ministers have delegated to Associate Ministers. In addition to these specific delegations, Ministers may involve Associate Ministers in other issues and general duties associated with the portfolio.

This schedule also includes responsibilities allocated to Parliamentary Under-Secretaries. Parliamentary Under-Secretaries are appointed by the Governor-General, by warrant, under section 8 of the Constitution Act 1986. They exercise those functions and powers assigned to them by the relevant portfolio Minister, in accordance with section 9 of the Constitution Act.
